Martin D-42 AR: A Fine Guitar

Maker	... C F Martin Co
Limited Edition	... only 30 made
Peghead	... bound w/ vertical C F Martin inlay
Tuners	... Waverly "butterbean" tuners
Top	... Alpine spruce top
Fret Marker Inlay	... snowflake
Back And Sides	... old growth Amazon Rosewood

Exotic woods alone are not the beginning and end of a great guitar, but they help. C F Martin has been a standard in the acoustic instrument building business since 1833. Experience like that and the right wood, exotic or not, can only produce an axe that anyone would envy. There are a number of new D-42's played in the YBA, and they all sound great. Mark Harmala has the only D-42 "AR". One might be able to look at it, if one asks nicely. If one touches it, he or she is very lucky.

The CD Addict

Musical suggestions from the editor for those who simply must have more Bluegrass!

CD

Special Delivery by Larry Sparks and the Lonesome Ramblers

Sparks carries on with the Stanley Bros sound. A great CD in every way. My favorite tune is the old Hank Williams' classic, "California Zephyr". There are two very interesting instrumentals, "Faded Love" and "San Antonio Rose" that really showcase Spark's abilities (familiar but fresh).

It's a good one!

Down the Old Plank Road: The Nashville Sessions by the Chieftains

The Chieftains, without a doubt the most famous and most recorded Irish super-group, continue their relationship with the US which was started when they recorded Another Country back in 1992. Down the Old Plank Road takes a route deeper in-country on the American music map and digs up tunes and players more familiar to Oldtimey and Bluegrass crowds than the first recording which was more contemporary "Country". As is the normal format for the Chieftains, the band pairs up songs American and Irish. If the songs are not obviously related by topic, they are at least similar melodically. This time, however, their Yankee counterparts are Earl Scruggs, Tim O'Brien, Ricky Skaggs and Kentucky Thunder, Gillian Welch and David Rawlings, Bela Fleck and many more. Some of the tunes on this disc include: "Country Blues", "Cindy", "Sally Goodin", and "Tennessee Stud". My favorite is "I'll Be All Smiles Tonight". This waltz written, according to notes on the CD, in 1879 is performed by Country artist Martina McBride. Old waltzes on new recording are rare indeed.

Another feature of the CD which is unique—a large number of artist from many different recording houses. Can you imagine the stacks of legal documents that must have been created to allow this kind of project to be marketed!! People go out of their way to play with the Chieftains.

It's a good one!

The Berrys Find a New Home

Congratulations to the Berrys, Rolland and Lori, on their new home in Miles City. The address is: 520 Sioux Ave., Miles City, MT 59301. Their telephone (I hope it works!) number is: (406) 232-1049. E-mail brrybst@wmconnect.com

They say they'll be around Billings for jams and things. Folks in Miles City have already welcomed them warmly. YBA wishes them the best of everything.
